MAISON DE VILLAGE

History of the house

The Maison de Village is located at 3 rue de la Juiverie, one of the oldest streets in the village of Lorgues. This street has borne this name since the Middle Ages, when many people of the Jewish faith lived in this area. At the time, it was common to divide the population according to their profession, religious denomination or origin.

House overview

The Maison de Village, recognisable by its stone façade clad in Virginia creeper, is a perfect example of the charm of typical Provençal homes. The soul and authenticity of the place have also been preserved inside, with local materials such as wood, terracotta tiles and stone. A real plunge into the heart of Provence's traditions.
