VILLA JASSO

History of the House

At first glance, it's hard to imagine this beautiful house housing herds of cows, goats and sheep. Yet Villa Jasso was once a sheepfold. With this heritage so dear to Château de Berne, the name of the house was not chosen lightly, the word «Jasso» meaning sheepfold in Provençal.

With a little hindsight, it's easy to imagine the pool house as a shelter for hay and straw, or the main building as a sheepfold with its various compartments.

The house has been restored to create a friendly family home, with a facade reminiscent of the southern sun and a peaceful, green setting.
