

DOMAINE DE LA CLAPIÈRE

Your private country house in Provence,
with the Relais & Châteaux standard of service

The estate

Just a few minutes from the Château de Berne, La Clapière offers the rare privilege of a private estate in the heart of Provence's wine-growing region. Surrounded by landscaped gardens, vineyards, olive groves and woods, this secluded country house combines the soul of a Provençal residence with the high standards of five-star hotel service.

Nestled within some 9.5 hectares of exquisitely landscaped gardens, the property combines timeless refinement with absolute privacy. Centuries-old olive groves, vineyards, orchards and peaceful woods create a lush setting where time seems to stand still. The panoramic views of the surrounding countryside.

The house, built in keeping with the region's architectural traditions, has been carefully restored to preserve its soul and authenticity. Its natural stone façade and weathered shutters embody the discreet and elegant charm of the Provençal farmhouses of yesteryear.

A depandance, a pool house, a large pétanque court and French-style gardens complete this remarkable estate.

Overview of the estate

An exceptional property combining the elegance of Provençal architecture with the comfort of the finest contemporary homes, the estate offers its guests a setting of unrivalled beauty and tranquillity. Its 9.5 hectares of landscaped gardens, olive groves and vineyards invite relaxation and conviviality. The country house also stands out for its unique character, with its succession of rooms and nooks and crannies designed and furnished to offer everyone spaces conducive to fulfilment and tranquillity.
